Thursday, June 23, 2011

9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

African American Heritage Hall

1701 Muhammed Ali Blvd

Louisville, KY 40203

The City of Louisville & the U.S. General Services Administration are bringing small business and Federal Government together in a small business forum: "Getting Back to Business"

You are invited to attend this free conference "Getting Back to Business" to meet and network with potential buyers; learn more about doing business with Federal agencies; and, marketing your business to Federal and Prime Contractors. GSA is hosting this event with several federal buyers (Army Corps of Engineer, Ft. Knox, others to be determined); the U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA), Small Business Development Center (SBDC); and the Kentucky Procurement Assistance Program office..

This event is open to all small and large businesses. To register, please send an email to r4smallbiz@gsa.gov with your business name, and names of individuals attending from your company. On-site registration will also be accepted, however, on a first come basis.

Program Highlights: Meet The Buyer's Forum; Workshops on doing business with the Federal agencies; Network and Business Card Exchange Forum. Please bring an ample supply of business cards and copies of your business resume for the networking forum. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested in advance. Please indicate requirement(s) in your registration.

For more information, please send an email to r4smallbiz@gsa.gov, attention Rebecca Vanover.

All GSA programs are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. This event is for informational purposes only and does not imply any contract, promise of business or obligate the Agency or participating organizations to any future course of action.
